

The Star

Thursday August 24, 2006

Snapshots

Oilcorp shares rose 9 sen, or 2.97%, to RM1.04 yesterday following reports that its subsidiary OilFab Sdn Bhd had secured a RM40mil contract to provide engineering, procurement and construction services, as well as the commissioning of jackets and topsides for Chermingat-A Platform. An analyst said that as the project was still in its infancy, buying interest in the counter was seen as a knee-jerk reaction.

OILCORP : [Stock Watch] [News]

OILCORP 3 : [Stock Watch] [News]

Shares in Landmarks shed 9 sen, or 4.81%, to RM1.78 yesterday. Analysts said that investors were opting out on a recent company announcement that it would not be making any foray into the casino and gaming business.

LANDM-A : [Stock Watch]

LANDMRK : [Stock Watch] [News]

LANDMRK 1 : [Stock Watch] [News]